A PACIFIC RAILWAY
GOLD LOAN
$6,500,000.
We are leave to announce that we have accepted the agency of the Kansas Pacific Railway Company,
For the sale of the Thirty Year Gold Loan, Free from Tax.
This Loan amounts to First Mortgage Land and Gold Bonds
court upon the completion of the Railway from near Sheridan, in Kansas, to Denver, Colorado, a distance of 286 miles, of which 12 miles are completed. The remainder is under contract, and the Mortgage to Holders of Bonds and Trustees of the certificates of Railway, besides now running through the heart of Kansas.
And in Successful Operation for 437 Miles.
West of the Missouri River, and earning all the coupons to meet all of the interest and current obligations, be ide
More than the Interest on this New Loan, in addition to the Bonds, are also secured by a first mortgage of the GOVERNMENT LAND GRANT OF THREE MILLION ACRES, extending in alternate sections on either side of the track, from the 39th mile post in Kansas Dundee, the proceeds of the sale of the Government Lands are pledged by the Trustees to the purchase of Bonds, the coupons up to July 1st, 1870, being held in U. S. Bonds, for A Sinking Fund for the Redemption of the Bonds.
The Land embraces some of the finest portions of the magnificent territory of Colorado, including a coal-field and timber, and another tract of Three Millions of Acres in the State of Kansas, and although not pledged as a security for this Loan, their present market value is very large to the Company's wealth and credit. We estimate the Value of the Company's Property covered by this Mortgage, at $23,000,000. Yet, while the Loan is merely $6,500,000;
The Bonds have
THIRTY YEARS TO RUN,
From May 1, 1869, and will pay
Seven per cent. Interest in Gold,
Semi-annually, on May 1 and Nov. 1, and are Free from Government Taxation.
The Company paying the tax.
The principal of the Bonds is made payable in Gold, in the City of New York, but each coupon will be Payable in Frankfort, London or New York, at option of the holder, without notice, at the following rates:
On $5.00 Bound in New York, $25 (each) and half
On Sovereigns and Napoleons in London or Frankfort, 20 (each) and half
On £1 Sterling in London or Frankfort, £5 (each) and half Interest.
The Agents of the Loan before accepting the entire trust bind the condition of the Road, and the country through which it runs, carefully examined. They are happy to give the Loan an explicit endorsement as a FIRST CLASS INVESTMENT, in every respect perfectly sure and in some essentials even Better than Government Securities.
The Bonds will be sold for the present at 96, and accrued Interest, both in Currency.
The Agents reserving the right to advance the rate.
The attention of investors is invited to these well secured Bonds, which we recommend as one of the most profitable investments in the market.

Heavy Robbery.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 28.

Sometime during last night the office of the Receiver of taxes at the corner of 6th and Chestnut streets and only a few steps from the Central Police Station, was broken into by burglars, who carried off $30,000, of which $10,000 was in cash and the balance in bonds.

CABLE NEWS.

LONDON, Aug. 28. A corrected sketch of the race yesterday says: "The Oxfords passed Hammersmith bridge ten lengths ahead. The Harvards having made a brilliant spurt, before reaching the bridge lay which they gained half a length, forty feet or thereabouts. All the way from Barnes to the goal the Harvards were pressed hard, and finished only a length ahead. The Oxfords were much distressed at the finish. The race was admirably managed by the umpire, Mr. Phillips, who invited a large party to meet them, including the Oxford men in spectacles and their race pilot, at the Star and Garter, at least as hard as any they ever contested, and praised the pluck and work of the Harvards. The Harvards consider the steering was rather out, making a possible difference of half a length to a length. Herring was rather unwell, owing to overtraining. The Harvards are well satisfied with their work and pleased with the arrangements, which prevented any difficulty during the races.

The general opinion is that the race was thoroughly well contested. Great praise rewards on all sides for each crew.

LONDON, Aug. 28. The press generally commented at length on the race of yesterday.

The Times reviewing the contest, says the inferiority of the Americans was in no unpardonable point the steering. Their error was undoubtedly lost ground, but not enough to account for the distance between the boats at the end of the race. Until the Americans portray the defects they must acknowledge that style to be the best. The Americans met with perfectly fair play, and England to America they will meet similar treatment. May all future international struggles be conducted in the same spirit, and whichever side wins may the vanquished have no little reason to feel reared for their defeat.

The News declares if the Harvards did not command success they deserved it; and forces the American yachtmen on the Atlantic will avenge the defeat of their countrymen.

The Star says the Americans will long remember the chivalric bearing of their opponents, who, though resolved to win, never forget that the Harvards were gentlemen worthy their oars. The strife between New and Old England on the river from which the Pilgrim Fathers started was a historic strife, and appeals to the imaginations of the youth of both countries. If New England won, the latter country would have shared in the triumph of its descendants. The fates decided otherwise. We are sure that the Thames would scarcely be pealed by pastmen by any other nation on the globe.

Maguire the Wife Murderer Arrested.

HARTFORD, Conn., Aug. 28.

Martin McGuire, who murdered his wife last Sunday morning, and has since been at large, was arrested at two o'clock this morning at the office of his house in this city. During the week he has changed from this city to Westfield, Mass., and back, and has some of the time been concealed in the woods and barns in the vicinity. He was footsore and exhausted when arrested. He was straitened at the Police Court this morning and committed to jail for further examination next week.

Class Conventions.

Bradford, Charleston and Lexington, at Town House, Bradford, SATURDAY AFTERNOON, Sept. 4, at 2 o'clock P. M.

Alton Corinth, Hudson and Kedusteag, at School House, Hudson Village, on SATURDAY, Sept. 4th, at 2 o'clock P. M.

Milford, Bradley, Eddington, Holden, Clifton and Greenbush, at Eddington Bend, on Saturday, Sept. 4th, at two o'clock P. M.

Massachusetts is the only State where the Democracy succeed in riding two horses in their present campaign, and the reason for this no doubt is that it is the State farthest removed from all danger of Democratic success before the people. They meet together regularly in Convention to present a victim for popular condemnation, and to vary the monotony of defeat, they experiment upon the ingenuity of their wire workers in hoodwinking the masses of the party with positives and negatives in the same breath. Their late convention declared, for instance, that they had no new views to offer and no changes of policy to make, and immediately thereafter they nominate for pilot Mr. John Quincy Adams who proceeds to lay out an entirely new course for the old hulk to sail. They cannot see that they should change their old pro-slavery, semi-rebellious, autocratical principles,—and this plaster is good for the old copperhead scoreboards who never forgot anything. They nominate a man who is far in advance of Democratic ideas, who slaps them in the face and tells them that they were justly defeated last year because the people demanded universal suffrage and equal rights,—and this pill is administered for the faint digestion of the men who vibrate between the two parties and don't like to swallow any positive pill. So the Democratic party has succeeded in placing itself astride two nags who do not pull together, presenting an excellent opportunity for the display of political equestrian dexterity. Maine, Ohio and Pennsylvania Democracy tried the experiment and failed through the modesty of its members. Massachusetts deserves the first place in the Democratic heart for inventing a policy whereby they can assume any position that the forlorn hope shall deem expedient.

As a straw favorable to our proposed Aroostook Railroad, we find the following from the Calais Advertiser: "We understand the Houlton Branch Railway is at a stand-still because the enterprising town of St. Stephen won't put up the $15000 she agreed to, tacitly, at least, if Calais would put up an equal amount. Calais stepped forward and voted to pledge her credit for the required sum, and now St. Stephen refuses to do anything towards it. Of the two places, St. Stephen would receive the most benefit from the road when built. Neither place can afford to let the trade of that fine, fertile section slip through their fingers, just when it can be secured by the expenditure of the paltry sum of $15000. Whatever is going to be done to secure it must be done quickly, for Bangor is making great exertions to secure it, and it lays with St. Stephen, it seems, to say whether she shall succeed or not. Let Bangor get a road to the Aroostook and another to Bucksport or Winterport, where she can have free navigation through the winter months, and ten times $15,000 wouldn't wrest it from her."

Is not an Aroostook Railroad the most important enterprise in which Bangor can invest?

The fact that our opponents are divided, with two candidates in the field, is the strongest possible argument for holding our own party together. Every division weakens our strength, if we are wise. Let us learn of our adversary, and make our antagonist a helper. [Buffalo Journal.

Under the accumulating evidence, how can the Hichborn party avoid the inevitable responsibility for imparting hope to the impotent Democracy? How can they but reform their political action before it is too late to prevent the mischief?

Here we have a direct testimony that the Democrats expect aid from the Hichborn diversion. They propose to make Hichborn a "helper." They propose to hold their party together because of this Republican bolt. So that the advent of this new party has been the only renewing inspiration of the half defunct Democratic party, which is the special champion of rum and injustice. Let the temperance men be taught in time the danger of giving encouragement to our common enemies. The defeat of Gov. Chamberlain means the triumph of Democratic heresies.

The Saco Democrat records itself against the trade combination proposed by the Argus to reorganize the Democratic concern. It further advances the bold assertion that the Democracy constitute "a live party," and proposes to fight it out on the distinct platform, if anybody can discover what that is. The Democrat is evidently a true-blue, purblind Bourbon for whom death on the pale horse will have no terrors till it is too late to revive him. But it is singular how many doctors prescribe for that feeble party, and how they disagree.

John Quincy Adams says the price of coal is an outrage, the duty on iron a swindle and the tariff an abomination. He describes the working men as subjected naked to the lashing of a pitiless storm of taxation. Universal suffrage he styles "the barbarian ballot" and the constitution of Massachusetts "an amusing literary curiosity." These are hard words, but the fact is the little son of his father and grandson of his grandfather, being a comparatively new recruit, must make himself heart pretty extensively in order to retain his standing. Calling names is the easiest way to establish a Democratic reputation.

Political and Personal.

It is significant that not a single candidate for office in Kentucky, at the late election, who had been in the Confederate army was defeated.

The New York Commercial Advertiser says that Chief Justice Chase, while in that city a few days ago, expressed his regret that the press should continue to drag him before the public and represent him as seeking for Presidential honors.

There is said to be a movement on foot in San Francisco for the organization of a "Caucasian Society," whose avowed object is "to discourage Chinese and Japanese immigration to California," and "to protect the 'superior races' against the 'inferior ones,' socially and politically. What next?"

At a meeting of the Women's Suffrage Association of New York last week, a member stated that she had with considerable difficulty obtained seventy-five signatures to the petition for a sixteenth amendment, giving women the vote. Not more than twenty of them were obtained from women.

It appears that the ratification of the Fifteenth Amendment by the New York Legislature has never been officially communicated to the Department of State at Washington. As the Legislature did not formally request Gov. Hoffman to transmit its action he neglected to do it. A duly certified copy of the concurrent resolution can be taken from the Secretary of State's office at Albany and forwarded to Washington and thus repair the mistake.

The Texas Conservative Republicans seem to have "agreed to disagree" upon men and measures. The Radicals, whose ticket is headed by General Davis, are working steadily and harmoniously, but it is not so with the opposition. While one section favors Bonilds Baker for Lieutenant Governor the other section repudiates him. This dissention goes far toward insuring the success of the Radical ticket and the election of Gen. Davis.

The Washington special of the N. Y. Evening Post says there is good authority for saying that it is the intention of the President to make a number of changes in Tennessee offices. His course in this matter will be guided more or less by the action of the Tennessee Legislature in ratifying or rejecting the Fifteenth Amendment. Governor Senter holds that it will not be ratified, while Stokes is positive that it will not only be rejected, but measures passed advocating the doctrine of repudiation. The fight between these two factions of Tennessee politicians promises to become exciting upon the return of the President.

To the Editor of the Daily Whig:

On my return to this city a few days since, after an absence of some ten days I saw for the first time the communication of Mr. James Dunning published in your paper Aug. 19th, which in justice to others as well as myself, requires some notice.

Mr. Dunning complains of statements made by me, by invitation from the Common Council when, the petition of A. D. Munson and others for the city to take the water charter was under consideration.

In common with those who signed that petition, I believe the time is not far distant when an abundant supply of pure water will be considered of the utmost importance for the health and convenience of the people, as well as for protection against fire and for manufacturing purposes. Entertaining those views I endeavored to present the great danger of permitting a private corporation to exercise full control the great power contained in the water charter as a speculation for its own bonds. As an illustration of what might be expected, I referred to the original construction of the gas works and I think the statements I made upon the subject are fully confirmed by Mr. Dunning himself. But he was mistaken if he understood me to say the people are paying twice what they ought to pay for gas. In the case of the gas works, to which I referred, the subscription for stocks was not opened to the public until after a contract had been made with Mr Macy and others to construct the works for $65,000, and another between Mr. Macy and Mr. Dunning for the latter to get up a subscription by our citizens for $35,000.—Our citizens were thus deprived of any voice regarding the construction of the works for which they were to pay. The actual cost of the works have been variously stated by Mr. Dunning from $56,000 to $45,000. I put it at $40,000.

Another legitimate result of this mode of constructing public works, was developed soon after the stockholders took possession of the gas works, to the discovery that they were improperly constructed and that a large additional expenditure was necessary to put them in good working condition. It is only just to presume that the Directors generally at this time were unacquainted with the cost and suitable construction of gas works. This cannot, however, be said of Mr. Dunning who was then a Director and claims to have been a leader in the enterprise. If, says he he had Macy's estimate before closing the contract, and you as a Director he voted to give some sixty per cent more for the construction of the works than the estimated cost. And in execution of his agreement with the contractor actually obtained sufficient subscriptions of funds from our citizens to carry the contract into effect.

It is also regretted Mr. Dunning had not stated how much "watering" the required of the contractor as an inducement to render these services.

Mr Dunning says there was no "watering" of gas stock while he was a Director, but that it was watered $10,000 in April, 1868"—and further he states that I voted myself and associates $10,000 in gas stock for nothing. Now, the very page in the records of the gas company, upon which Mr. Dunning predicates his accusation, bears the statement, that the sum of $20,000 was required to extend the works, and also that there had accumulated in net earnings during the life of the company over and above the semi-annual dividends of 4 per cent at least $10,000, which of course belonged to the old stockholders. In order to equalize the old with the new stock to be issued, this $10,000 must be divided in cash to the old stockholders, or allowed to remain and enter into the cost of the extension—and that amount of new stock, instead of money divided among the old stockholders. The latter course was adopted by the Directors and I fail to see wherein any injustice was done to the stockholders or the public. I presume Mr. Dunning will not deny that the works have been skillfully and economically conducted since the stockholders took possession of them.

The works have been in operation sixteen and one-half years, and the records show that the average of semi-annual dividends in cash have been 3 44-100 per cent, with the stock dividend of 1868 added it will be 3 74-100. The annual depreciation and insurance of the works is estimated by the best authority I can find is at least 1½ per cent, one half of which taken from 3 74-100 leaves 2 25-100 as the average semi-annual dividend of the company since its Organization.

These facts satisfactorily explain the cause of gas stock having been so frequently below par, sinking sometimes as low as ninety per cent. Mr. Dunning says he show Mr Macy's estimate of the cost of the gas works, and urged me to join him in taking the contract. I have not the slightest recollection of such a proposition. He might have added that he has offered me an interest in his water works contract.

I cannot however see the force of such statements—for a copartnership of that sort involves considerations of more importance than the mere cost of the works.

It is worthy of notice that this water charter is being manipulated in a manner very similar to that applied to the gas charter.

Mr. Dunning having been defeated in his efforts with a previous Legislature, avails himself of his position as a representative to obtain a charter for supplying his constituents with water containing the extraordinary provision, that while the corporation has six years to build the works the city had only one in which to consider the expediency of taking the charter. Without waiting the one year for the decision of the city, or giving any opportunity for our citizens to subscribe for stocks without plans and specifications, or even surveys other than taking the levels and distances, we find Mr. Dunning armed, with a contract for constructing water works intended to last for ages, and directly affecting the convenience, comfort, and health of the people of this city. If the citizens of Bangor approve of Mr. Dunning's method of contracting public works as illustrated in the Bangor Gas Works—they have only to respond to his requisitions, by putting the city in for a contribution of $20,000 a year, subscribe individually the requisit amount of funds and the work is done. But if they wish to avoid an interminable controversy with the water company, and secure at the proper time, the introduction of an abundant supply of pure water, upon the most judicious plan, at the least possible expense to the consumers, in my judgment they must take the water charter while they have the power.

FRANKLIN MUZZY.

Bangor, Aug. 26, 1869

A Worthy Example.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 23d, 1869.

To the Editor of the Daily Whig:

The reputation of Washington as a centre to which gravitate the countless hordes of greedy and rapacious office-seekers, is rather extended, among newspaper readers, at least, and I fear the reputation is not altogether unfounded; but a sojourn of several years in the "city of magnificent distances," with an occasional opportunity of getting "behind the scenes" in the great political drama, induce me to believe in the truth of the old proverb that "the d——l is not half so blackins he is painted."

I have been made acquainted with an incident of recent occurrence here that is highly creditable to one of your Maine men, A. S. Dodge, Esq., of Wolcheville. Mr. Dodge received a very desirable appointment under Hon. A. M. Clapp, the new Congressional Printer, and some time in June last came on here to assume the duties of the position. Upon ascertaining, however, that if he took the place, it would necessitate the throwing out of a gallant soldier, Capt. A. N. Thompson of Pa., who had served all through the war with distinction, and who was thus actually incapacitated from working at his trade as a printer from the effects of a severe and yet painful wound, he at once declined the position, only stipulating that the gallant Captain should be permanently retained in his place, declaring that, though a soldier himself, he was fortunately able-bodied, and that he should forever despise himself if he were the means of displacing a brave and disabled soldier in the service of the Government he helped to save. The very next morning's train conveyed Mr. D. on his homeward trip. How many parallel cases, Mr Editor, do you suppose have transpired in this city since it became the Mecca of office-seekers? Not many, I trow!

I am personally a stranger to Mr. Dodge, though I am proud to acknowledge him a brother "Mainean" and I do not suppose he will thank me for blazoning a deed which he performed so quietly and as a mere matter of course; but the action was the subject of so much warm commendation among the few who have hitherto known of it, that I cannot resist the temptation of confiding the facts to you and your readers.

Winterport and the Railroad.

WINTERPORT, Aug. 28th, 1869.

Editor of the Daily Whig:

The meeting of the inhabitants of the town of Winterport to see what aid should be furnished to the "Winterport Railroad Company," was held this afternoon in Clark's Hall. At an early hour the voters from all sections of the town began to assemble and the interest of the enthusiasm of our citizens in this great enterprise was manifested by the unanimity of sentiment which pervaded the whole meeting.

At the appointed hour 150 voters were found to be present and unanimously it was voted—

First—That the Selectmen be and are hereby directed to subscribe forthwith to the stock of the Winterport Railroad Company an amount equal to five per cent of the present valuation, to wit, $21,400 of said stock.

Second—That the town, on its credit to the Winterport Railroad Company for the sum of $30,000, and that the Selectmen be authorized to petition the next Legislature to make valid the doings of the town in this regard.

The town of Winterport has put herself on record for $61,400, being 12½ per cent. of her valuation, and to that may be added $10,000 of private subscriptions, making in all nearly 14 per cent of the whole valuation of the town.

Let it not hereafter be said that we are not alive in the railroad matter, and that we as Bangor to do what we would not do ourselves, when we have subscribed 6 per cent. of our valuation to the stocks and gained our credit to the amount of 7½ per cent. of our valuation, and only ask of Bangor a loan of about 2 per cent. of her valuation secured by a mortgage on the whole road.

It now remains for Bangor to say whether she will reach up a railroad of 18 miles in length, Winterport, or go 20 miles to Bucksport.

WINTERPORT.

The supporters of Mr. Hichborn in Knox County have decided to give their votes to the Republican nominee for County officers, they all being temperance men. This is a sign of wisdom which it would be well for the friends of temperance to have imitated elsewhere.

It is somewhat remarkable that the Hichborn men have so much trouble in getting candidates to "stick." Not a week has passed since their State Convention that has not witnessed the withdrawal of several reported Hichborn supporters from their ranks, and since the holding of their County Convention, these withdrawals seem to have multiplied rapidly. Hon. Samuel Farnham was nominated by the Sagadahoc Convention for County Commissioner, whereupon he writes to say that he was a member of the Republican State Committee and likes its action; he therefore tells them "not for Joe." We expect to hear from several others in the same song in a few days.

The Gardiner Journal (Hichborn) says that a member of the Republican State Committee in a business letter to that paper, penned that opinion, "Chamberlain is no more a Republican than is Andrew Johnson." Commenting upon this we notice one contemporaries are severe upon this member of the State Committee for his treachery, although no more severe than he deserves. But it seems to us scarcely possible that a member of our present State Committee could utter that sentiment and still be willing to hold his position. The men are very few who could reconcile the two. We have a suspicion that the story was somewhat modified if we had the whole of it. Will the Journal favor us with the exact text? Will it tell us if the member of the present Committee was interrogating some other authority? If it was answered adversely, then it would be wholesome treatment for his treachery to furnish his name.

Homeopathic Evidence in Business.

DILLUTION. The Riverside Echo makes the following statement to prove that Washington County is all right on the Hichborn fiasco. The Machias Republican is the only person who knows anything about Washington County but knows it is all right. A third party element has no vitality in it all the Echo can raise to support Hichborn is the evidence:

"It has been claimed that the Democrats of Washington County are in sympathy with the new party, which in addition to give real Prohibition to the people of our State. The falsity of this statement is sufficiently shown in the following extract from a private letter received from one of the most prominent and influential citizens of Calais. 'I am very much in hope there will be no change who vote as they talk in Washington. I like the men who run the caucuses, especially when no rum is offered. The Republican party has the right committed to their charge, and I really earnestly hope the people will be allowed to have it.'

More in the evidence, says the Republican, of the strength of the Hichborn party in Washington County. We do not profess to say there will be but few votes cast for it here in this county. But we do claim in consequence of the existence of the party and there a voter who, by any disguise, to give the influence to the Democratic party.

Blackberries have appeared in the market and sold at 15 cents per small box. Cabbages, tomatoes and watermelons, are in abundance about the streets, and the prices for them are said to be nominal.

—The Aroostook Times learns that the following nominations were made at the Hollborn party convention held at Bridgewater on Monday:

—The Bath Times says that in the case of a dead body found in Woolwich Wednesday evening, a jury of inquest was summoned by Coroner A J Potter. Dr Buck was called and testified that in his opinion the deceased came to his death by some internal disorder probably heart disease. The jury returned a verdict accordingly. The body appeared to be that of a man sixty-five years of age. Upon his left arm were the letters M P, and separate the letter L. His clothing seemed to indicate that he might have been a fisherman. In the open carpet bag was a tarred hat, shirt, under flannels, brush, shaving knife, &c. There was a nice linen handkerchief, marked with stencil letters on one corner, "Kate Bradley." Information or enquiries should be addressed to coroner A J Potter, Bath.

—Cumberland County Democratic Convention met in Portland. Nominations as follows were made: For Senators, Benj. Larrabee of Portland, Daniel C Emery of Gorham, Abner B Thompson of Brunswick and Daniel M Cook of Casco. Clerk of Courts, Thomas W Given; Commissioner, Silas Skillin of North Yarmouth; Treasurer, Horace J Bradbury of Westbrook.

—The body of Charles Goodwin was found floating down the Saco River at North Limington on the 19th inst. It is supposed that he was drowned on Saturday the 14th, while attempting to ford the river at the falls just above where his body was discovered, as he informed some friends on that day of his intention of doing so, on his way home. He was a river driver.

—We find in the Portland Press that the Kennebunk camp meeting was largely attended Thursday. Many inquirers came forward. Just at the close of the afternoon service the mournful intelligence of the suicide in Biddeford of Mrs Center, wife of Rev N D Center, of that place, a superannuated preacher of the Maine conference, was received.

FIRE AT NORWAY. The Norway correspondent of the Portland Advocate says that about half past nine o'clock Thursday night fire was discovered in the oil part of Mixer and Watson's tannery. The engine companies of Norway and South Paris were promptly on hand and succeeded in keeping the fire from the main building and a portion of the ell. Damage to building and stock about $500. Insured.

—A Camden correspondent informs us that the installation of Rev H A Shorey as pastor of the First Congregational Church in that place, takes place Wednesday Sept. 1st. Mr Shorey has closed his labors as agent stating agent for the Bangor Seminary—having procured the handsome subscription of $30,000 in Maine.

—As Mr Dorrance Littlefield of Saco, of the firm of Littlefield and Dawes, was riding along Main street with two ladies in his carriage, his horse took fright, became unmanageable, overset the carriage, and threw out Mr Littlefield and the two ladies. The parties were but little injured. The carriage was considerably damaged.

—At the Biddeford depot Thursday morning a boy fell under a car while the train was in motion and was rolled a little distance before the wheels. He was rescued by officer A L Hatch, of Biddeford, who deserves great credit for his promptness and nerve, says the Portland Press.

—The Somerset County Republican Convention on Thursday renominated Hons S D Luddey of Norridgewock and L H Webber of Hartland, for senators.

—Mr Gideon Bather of Dresden fell from a load of hay and badly injured his hip, says the Gardiner Journal.

—A little boy, son of Mr Parsons of Kennebunk village, was quite badly bitten by a dog on Thursday, as we learn from the Portland Press.

—The next session of Hancock County Lodge of Good Templars will meet with Sparkling Water Lodge, Brooksville, on the 2nd Tuesday of November.

—The Machias Republican says dedicating services were performed in the Universalist Chapel on Sunday the 22nd. Rev Mr Bartlett of Bangor, Rev Mr Philbrook of Calais and Rev Mr Nowell (Unitarian) of Calais, were present, and performed the services.

NEWSPAPER CHANGES. WES Whitman of Gardiner Toby Coudon has purchased the Bath Daily Times, the Portland Advertiser learns, and will take possession on the 1st of September. It is reported that Major Shorey of the Times is negotiating for the Riverside Echo, which is now owned by an association of gentlemen.

THE NEW ENGLAND FAIR AT PORTLAND. The demand for space at the Hall exhibition has been very great for the last few days. In view of this condition of things the Mayor has kindly increased the space in addition to City Hall, by placing at the disposal of the society the Aldermen's room, the Council Chamber and the City Messenger's offices, with permission to erect in the corridor such temporary partitions as may be necessary for the best lots, and in Boston they are to advance the interest of the exhibition. Arrangements are also being made with the Grand Trunk Railway Steamship Company to open their boats for freight to the public in connection with the Fair.

Mr John M Finney, the proprietor of Fluent's Hall, waited on the Trustees and very generously offered the gratuitous use of his Hall, opposite City Hall, together with the [illegible] belonging to it, and all the [illegible] needed, on the second floor; and he [illegible] so doing, added facility that will [illegible] entertainment. The hall is [illegible] by 90 feet very high, lighted on three sides, and elegantly frescoed, and next to the City Hall it is the most beautiful one in the city. All these rooms will be open to the public without any increase in the present admission.

As a sample of the manner in which the applications are coming in, a few are selected from the books as follows: A Boston manufacturer writes that he shall require a large space for the display of goods of his manufacture. The Portland Gross Co. have secured one entire table for their contribution, and Messrs. Dowell & Senter will need a like space for the exhibition of jewelry, plate, nautical instruments, watches, &c. A Portland dealer has applied for a hundred feet of wall surface for clocks. J P Kimball has signified his intention to use double the space he occupied last year with carriages. Shepley and Co. will occupy from 40 to 60 feet of table with fancy goods; and the [illegible] dressers are trying to secure a large space for goods in hour line. In the way of musical instruments the room at first intended for this department has been found too small, and another apartment will be assigned to it. Of smaller entries the variety and number are almost endless.

The entries for the ground are coming in rapidly. The Horse Book shows that some of the most celebrated in New England will be in the enclosure, some of which excite the envy of horsemen. Col Lang has entered Gen. Knox, Mr Chenery of Belmont, Mass., to bring two horses, in addition to his entry of his head of blooded neat stock.

The entries of cattle and sheep are very numerous. As the entries continue to be made with equal rapidity up to the last day, the Fair will exceed, it is thought, anything that has preceded it.

Col. Needham, the Secretary of the New England Society, has received instructions to extend invitations to His Excellency Gen. Grant, the President of the United States, to visit the Fair, also to his Royal Highness, Prince Arthur, Sir John Young, Governor General of Canada.

The entries footed up Friday night 158 horses, (without counting trotting horses,) 496 head of cattle, 211 head of sheep, 53 head of swine, and 84 coops of poultry.

That there is a deep interest in the Fair is apparent, and if the weather should be favorable there will be the largest crowd of visitors to Portland that ever was known.

CAMP MEETING.—The Lily of the Wave leaves for the camp ground every Monday this week.

—Sixty Passengers left Lincoln in the early train Friday morning for the E & N A Railway, and about the same number came down on Saturday. The business of the road astonishes the most sanguine advocates.

FOREST LODGE F. & A. M. On Thursday afternoon last, Forest Lodge of F. & A. M. was constituted in ample form, at Springfield, by the Grand Master, assisted by other members of the Grand Lodge and large delegations from Horeb Lodge, Lincoln, and Lowe's Island Lodge, Princeton. The services took place in the Congregational Church and the music by the choir would have done credit to a much larger town than Springfield. Rev S Bowen, of Lincoln, delivered an oration, and Rev. Thos. Marsden, of Wyman, officiated as chaplain.

R W Isaac Huckins, of East Corinth, installed the officers for the current year as follows:

Hiram Stevens, Master;
Osgood N Bradbury, S W;
J M Tripe, J W;
Emery Johnson, Treas;
A Degrabue, Sec'y;
L W Drake, S D;
Wm Murdock, J D;
A H Luddey, S S;
J T Budge, J S;
W L Scribner, Marshal;
Benj Barr, Tyler.

At the close of the services dinner was served at Burr's Hotel, and the evening was pleasantly spent by the fraternity and their ladies.

This Lodge promises to become a flourishing and useful institution, having in it all the elements of success.

THE WATER FAMINE IN PHILADELPHIA. The Philadelphia Inquirer of Thursday says that the steam fire engines continue to do good service at Fairmount, and their ability to make large additions to the supply of water in the reservoirs is now fully demonstrated. The dead point of danger is passed, and if the citizens continue to use water sparingly no serious inconvenience will be felt, unless there should be a very destructive fire.

ARRANGEMENTS WITH INDIANS. A Washington dispatch to the Boston Journal says Commissioner Parker of the Indian Bureau is in receipt of dispatches from Messrs. Brupot and Dodge, of the Independent Indian Commission, to the effect that they have succeeded in making arrangements with the leading chiefs of the Cheyennes and Arrapahoes to have all the Northern Chiefs come brought in and located upon their reservations. When this is accomplished much will have been done in the way of quieting the Indian troubles in Southern Kansas and vicinity.

LINES

Written on the Island lying ground at Sandy Point.

A lonely spot, and old,
Dreary, sandy, bare and cold
Where are lying,
Scattered loosely, here and there,
Bleached by sun, and rain, and air,
Bones, in fragments, stark and bare,
O'er which, sighing,

The wind, in murmurous tone,
Chants their requiem, sad and lone;
As recalling
To our minds the thoughts of those,
Whom a century's quiet doze
Has rolled of fleshy clo's.
How appalling!

To remember, as we walk,
And lightly touch and talk
O'er their bed,
That upon this very sod,
These flothless feet once trod,
In their floppings quaint and odd
While the red

Right hand, now shattered bone,
Wielded tamahawk of stone,
As he hasted
To secure some scalp lock tall.
Ah me! what stuff for all
Our modern waterfalls
Thus was wasted.

Near this bone a broken tooth,
Single, long, and sharp, in truth,
An upper,
That reminds me that 'tis time
To cut off this foolish rhyme,
And, forsaking duet and grime—
Go to supper.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most able and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHAS. MASON, Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in asserting that if inventors can not employ a man more capable, more trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them a favorable consideration at the Patent Office, I do not know who is. EDMUND BURKE, Late Commissioner of Patents.

"Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, in all but ONE of which Patents have been granted, and the one is now pending. This unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on the part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be assured of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges.
